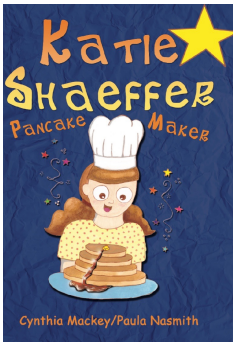
Name of Student	Number of Copies	Signed?Y/N	Paid?	Total Cost

Katie Shaeffer Pancake Maker written by Cynthia Mackey, illustrated by Paula Nasmith

Katie is too young to use the oven and she dreams of making her very own pancakes. Join Katie and her friend Baxter in this fun story as they use their passion for collecting and construction to find a way to realize their pancake dream!


This upbeat energetic tale with great potential for reading aloud will appeal to adults and young children alike. The book includes a predictable rhyme that will have children joining in as the story unfolds. Children will celebrate with Katie and Baxter as their pancake dream becomes reality! Recipe included.